Muhammad Nawaz Sharif
University of Engineering and Technology, Multan

ACTIVITY REPORT

THE SEERAH OF THE BELOVED PROPHET ﷺ AND TODAY'S YOUTH: PROMOTING PEACE, SOCIAL COHESION AND INTERFAITH HARMONY

2026

Title Of Activity:

The Seerah of the Beloved Prophet ﷺ and Today's Youth: Promoting Peace, Social Cohesion and Interfaith Harmony

Type Of Activity:

A Lecture

Date:

7th October 2026

Organized By:

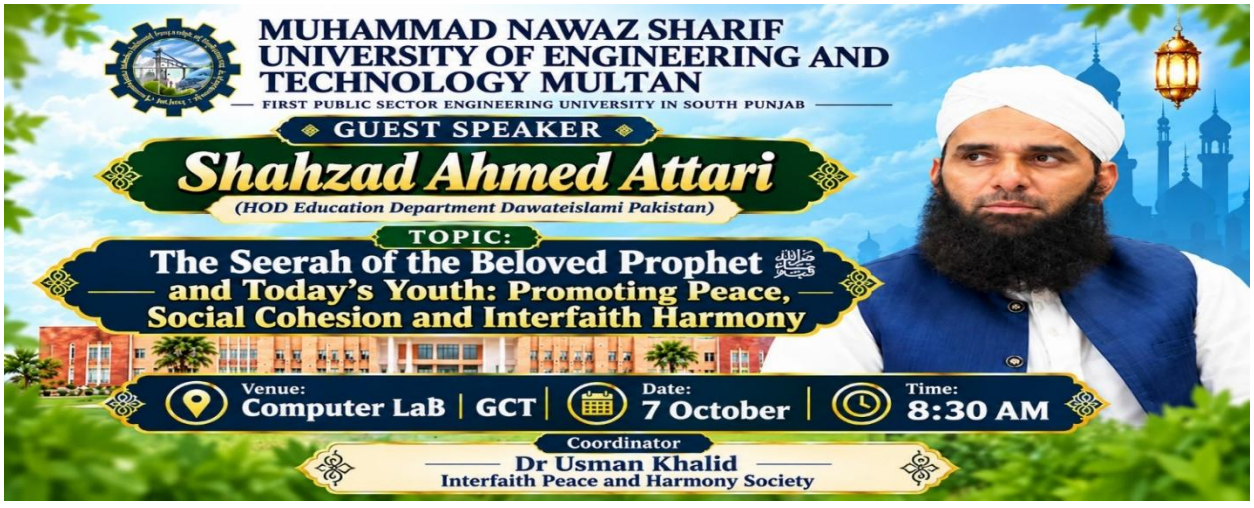

Interfaith Peace and Harmony Society,
Directorate of Students Affairs, MNS UET, Multan

Venue:

Muhammad Nawaz Sharif University of Engineering & Technology (MNS-UET), Multan

1. Background

The Seerah of the Holy Prophet Muhammad ﷺ provides valuable guidance for developing a peaceful, tolerant and socially responsible society. The Prophet ﷺ demonstrated through his life the principles of compassion, justice, forgiveness, respect for human dignity, peaceful coexistence and responsible social conduct.

Keeping in view the contemporary challenges faced by young people, the lecture focused on how the teachings and practical example of the Holy Prophet ﷺ can guide today's youth towards positive social behaviour, peaceful coexistence, respect for diversity and constructive engagement with people belonging to different communities and faiths.

2. Activity Details

MNS-UET Multan organized a religious and awareness-oriented activity comprising recitation of the Seerah of the Beloved Prophet ﷺ and Today's Youth: Promoting Peace, Social Cohesion and Interfaith Harmony.

3. Objectives of the Activity

The major objectives of the lecture were:

- To highlight the relevance of the Seerah of the Holy Prophet ﷺ to the lives of today's youth.
- To promote the values of peace, tolerance and social cohesion among university students.
- To develop awareness about the importance of interfaith harmony and peaceful coexistence.
- To encourage respect for religious and cultural diversity.
- To promote the principles of justice, compassion, forgiveness and mutual respect.
- To encourage young people to become responsible and constructive members of society.
- To provide an academic platform for constructive and respectful dialogue on contemporary social issues.
- To discourage intolerance, hatred, violence and social polarization through positive and credible religious guidance.

4. Major Themes of the Lecture

The lecture particularly focused on the following themes:

1. The Seerah as a Model of Peace and Compassion
2. Prophetic Guidance for Today's Youth
3. Tolerance and Respect for Religious Diversity
4. Interfaith Harmony and Peaceful Coexistence
5. Justice and Equality in the Prophetic Model
6. Respect for Human Dignity
7. Forgiveness, Patience and Conflict Resolution
8. Youth's Role in Promoting Peace and Social Cohesion
9. Responsible Communication and Avoidance of Hate and Intolerance
10. Building a Harmonious and Inclusive Society

5. Participation and Engagement

The activity provided an opportunity for students and faculty members to engage with the subject through an academic and awareness-oriented session. The participants were encouraged to reflect upon the practical application of Prophetic teachings in contemporary society, particularly in relation to tolerance, peaceful coexistence, mutual respect and interfaith harmony.

An interactive discussion/Q&A component was also included to encourage constructive dialogue and meaningful participation of youth, in accordance with the objectives outlined by PHEC.

6. Outcomes

The activity contributed to:

- Enhancing awareness among students regarding the peaceful and compassionate dimensions of the Seerah.
- Promoting tolerance, mutual respect and social harmony.
- Creating greater understanding of the importance of interfaith harmony.
- Encouraging students to respond to differences through dialogue rather than confrontation.
- Developing a sense of social responsibility among youth.

- Encouraging positive youth participation in peacebuilding and community harmony.
- Reinforcing the role of universities as platforms for peace, social cohesion and constructive dialogue.

Chief Guest Shahzad Ahmed Attari, HOD Education Department, Dawateislami Pakistan, delivered a speech highlighting the life, character, teachings, and message of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, particularly emphasizing peace, compassion, tolerance, honesty, brotherhood and Interfaith Harmony.

The activity also included reflection on the teachings of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and concluded with Dua for the prosperity, peace, Interfaith Harmony and well-being of the Muslim Ummah and the country.

7. Conclusion

The lecture "The Seerah of the Beloved Prophet ﷺ and Today's Youth: Promoting Peace, Social Cohesion and Interfaith Harmony" provided a meaningful academic and awareness platform for highlighting the relevance of the Prophetic model to contemporary challenges faced by young people.

The activity reinforced the message that the values of peace, compassion, justice, tolerance, respect for human dignity and peaceful coexistence are essential for building a harmonious and inclusive society. It also contributed to the broader objectives of the PHEC action plan concerning peace, social cohesion, interfaith harmony and constructive dialogue.