Organized by: Literary Society, MNSUET Multan
Event Date: Thursday, 22 October 2026
Venue: Computer Lab, Civil Department, MNSUET Multan
Time: 2:00 PM onwards
Theme: Kashmir & Its Struggle

1. Introduction

The Literary Society of Muhammad Nawaz Shareef University of Engineering and Technology (MNSUET), Multan, successfully organized the Kashmir Black Day Declamation Competition 2026 on Thursday, 22 October 2026, at the Computer Lab, Civil Department.

The activity was organized to commemorate Kashmir Black Day and provide students with a platform to express their thoughts, raise awareness, and highlight the historical struggle and ongoing challenges faced by the people of Indian-administered Jammu and Kashmir.

Under the theme "Kashmir & Its Struggle," the competition encouraged students to use the power of speech, critical thinking, and persuasive expression to communicate their perspectives on the Kashmir issue.

2. Objectives of the Activity

The primary objectives of the event were:

- To raise awareness among students regarding the Kashmir issue and the significance of Kashmir Black Day.
- To provide a platform for students to express their views through declamation and public speaking.
- To promote patriotism, empathy, human rights awareness, and a sense of social responsibility.
- To enhance students' confidence, communication skills, critical thinking, and oratory abilities.
- To encourage meaningful dialogue on the importance of peace, justice, and the rights of the Kashmiri people.

3. Event Proceedings

The event commenced at 2:00 PM at the designated venue. The program was conducted under the supervision and coordination of the Literary Society, MNSUET Multan.

The proceedings included the recitation of the Holy Quran, followed by the declamation competition, during which participating students delivered speeches centered on the theme of Kashmir and its struggle. Through their speeches, participants highlighted historical perspectives, human rights concerns, the importance of international awareness, and the aspirations of the Kashmiri people.

The competition provided students with an opportunity to demonstrate their public-speaking abilities, confidence, research, and persuasive communication. The activity also fostered an environment of reflection, constructive expression, and student engagement.

The program concluded with appreciation for the participating students and acknowledgment of their efforts in making the activity meaningful and successful.

4. Participation and Recognition

Students participated in the competition by presenting speeches relevant to the announced theme. Their participation reflected the importance of extracurricular activities in developing confidence, leadership, communication, and awareness of significant national and international issues.

As announced in the event invitation, certificates were provided to participants, and refreshments were arranged for participating students.

These arrangements were intended to recognize the students' efforts, encourage active involvement in literary activities, and promote continued participation in future initiatives organized by the society.

5. Outcomes and Impact

The successful completion of the activity contributed to the Literary Society's efforts to promote literary expression, public speaking, and civic awareness within the university.

The key outcomes included:

- Awareness and Reflection: Encouraged students to reflect on Kashmir Black Day and the significance of the Kashmir issue.
- Communication Skills: Provided participants with an opportunity to practice public speaking, argument development, and persuasive expression.
- Student Engagement: Promoted active participation in university-level extracurricular and literary activities.
- Leadership Development: Supported confidence-building, self-expression, and personal development among students.
- Social Responsibility: Encouraged students to engage thoughtfully with issues concerning human rights, justice, peace, and the dignity of affected communities.

Overall, the activity served as a meaningful platform for students to express their perspectives while strengthening the role of literary and co-curricular activities in university life.
